

Park View 11-12 All-Stars: It is a noteworthy event when any team achieves perfection in anything and reaches the heights that you now have reached.

It has been so long since any team from our South Bay area has reached the point you guys did that we have to go back to before even my generation of ballplayers to recall such a thing - and that is truly a long time ago.

This note brings you my very sincere congratulations on a memorable feat, one that will inspire many South Bay teams for a long time to come. But continue to work hard, for the mountain top is within reach and I have no doubts that if any team can get to the top first, it will be all twelve of you young men working together as you have this entire All-Star tournament.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,
